

Internship in the field of cultural administration

Illustrative is the leading international forum for contemporary illustration and graphic arts. The exhibition, which took place in Berlin last time, displays an inspiring collection of current illustrative and graphical art with works from more than 100 artists.

The exhibition is held by a non-profit association, which is also the editor of the art-magazine „Objects, Journal of applied arts“. The magazine deals with the latest trends and new approaches to crafts, including illustration, graphic, textile art, ceramics, glass, and book art. Each issue offers critical essays, entertaining interventions of artists, reviews, and extensive art works.

Requirements

Required qualifications for a 3 – 6-month internship are a completed / nearly completed degree in arts (journalism, cultural science, English or similar studies). Ideally you already have some experience in cultural administration (e.g. public relations, fundraising, sponsoring, cultural marketing), excellent language skills in German and English and a good style of writing.

You will experience...

an exciting job within a young team, where you are going to learn about all the different and complex tasks in the field of cultural administration in the context of a non-profit association, e.g.:

press work, public relations, art – and cultural marketing, fundraising, promotion of artists, organization of a festival and different vernissages, working for an art-magazine (research, editorial reports, distribution, support for authors).

If you can imagine working with us on a long-term basis, we are happy to provide the opportunity for an employment or working as a freelancer.
