

COREXA · Pferdemarkt 2-4 · D-45127 Essen

• • • • • Internship: Marketing and Sales

COREXA is the European Headquarter of the U.S. Company Pearhead Inc. in Germany. The Production and distribution of the world's most elegant keepsake products are a part of our main business. With our creative office in New York we develop designs, the complete product range and the assortment.

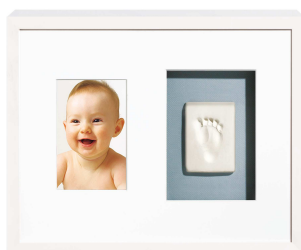

Description as our marketing and sales intern you'll create and develop risk analysis scorecards for use by Corporate Responsibility and the Business Units - covering regional and production engine specifics - throughout the Compliance Lifecycle. You'll create and maintain international fair communication deck for senior leadership, understand and communicate COREXA Keepsake category supply chain from factory to event, and understand Compliance Risk mitigation process for major events. In addition, you'll research and develop template for report and logistic lifecycle.

Duration: 4-6 month

Start: with immediate effect

Qualifications: currently pursuing a bachelor's degree, preferably in business administration, international business, marketing, public relations, liberal arts and/or communication.

- Proficient with all MS Office applications (Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Outlook).
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills.
- Ability to work well within different cultural contexts.
- Strong project management skills. Research oriented.
- Ability to prioritize while managing multiple tasks simultaneously with the ability to work independently.
- Strong passion for international business and/or international culture.

Interested? Please send us your CV to personal@corexa.de or contact us here,
COREXA · HR Dept. · Postfach 100714 · D-45127 Essen